

OUR APPROACH

Care begins with the person.

Every person has a life story, values, and wishes worth hearing. We take time to understand what matters, then coordinate thoughtful support with dignity and respect.

Our promise

We do not just manage estates; we honor lives. Every decision we make is guided by respect for the individual's dignity, history, and personal preferences.

THE PERSON AT THE CENTER

Guardianship & advocacy

A voice that is heard

We listen to the individual's history, wishes, and preferences and encourage participation in decisions.

Care and daily well-being

Regular visits, care-team communication, and attention to comfort, safety, meaningful activities, and community connection.

Thoughtful coordination

Support around healthcare conversations and living arrangements within the authority granted.

PRUDENT FINANCIAL STEWARDSHIP

Conservatorship

When managing finances becomes overwhelming, we provide organized stewardship within court authority.

Daily financial oversight

Bill management, account reconciliation, careful records, and required reporting.

Protecting what matters

Prudent oversight of assets and investments, with attention to warning signs of fraud or exploitation.

Supporting long-term needs

Coordination of financial resources for care, home maintenance, and appropriate living arrangements.

Conservatorship addresses financial affairs. Personal and healthcare decisions require the relevant guardianship or other legal authority.

A THOUGHTFUL PATH FORWARD

Support for the whole journey.

We work with individuals, families, and appropriate professionals to reduce administrative burdens and support informed next steps.

1 Begin with a conversation

Call 605-440-3888 or use the initial referral form.

2 Discuss the needs

We review service fit, capacity, fees, and the authority needed.

3 Plan the next steps

If appropriate, we arrange secure information exchange and an individual support plan.

Every person. Every voice.
Always valued.
